Overview

Kathmandu Valley Tour

Kathmandu Valley is located in Nepal that lies at the intersection of an ancient civilization of Asia with more than 150 monuments, pilgrimage sites, and seven world heritage sites within the valley. Kathmandu Valley Tour is a central economic hub developing rapidly in all sectors. It is famous among tourists for its architecture, rich culture, and traditions of the indigenous Newar ethnicities. Kathmandu Valley consists of three main cities- Kathmandu, Bhaktapur, and Patan. It is 1425m from sea level and is surrounded by four mountain ranges- Shivapuri, Phulchowki, Nagarjun, and Chandragiri.

Kathmandu valley tour significant and holy river Bagmati separates from the valley. Apart from the scenic beauty, Valley Tour, the central part of Nepal, is vibrant, with many cultures and cuisines from all over the country.

The Kathmandu valley day tour gives you an insight into the ancient cultural practices of the valley. The tour will cover the culture and artifacts around Kathmandu, Bhaktapur, and Patan city. You will visit the ancient palaces of Durbar Square, Patan Durbar Square, and Bhaktapur Durbar Square. Similarly, you will see Swayambhunath (the monkey temple), famous among Buddhists for viewing Kathmandu city from atop. Later, you will visit Patan Durbar Square, renowned for its inherited culture, temples, palaces, and stone sculptures.

You will also step on the most significant Hindu temple- Pashupatinath Temple, where you can see the sadhus and cemetery, and then to Boudhanath, a stupa famous for the Buddhists. Also, you will explore Bhaktapur and see the 9-story palace, taste the delicious local food, and enjoy the city ambiance. The tour is less expensive and gives you first-hand experience of the ethnic culture, history, lifestyles, etc. You can visit Kathmandu any time of the year because the weather is moderate and suitable for every person.

My Everest Trip has been organizing the Kathmandu valley tour package. Our guides are knowledgeable and will satisfy all of your curiosities. We can customize your terms as per your preference and time availability. With our services, you won't be disappointed!

Day 01

Arrival in Kathmandu (1,310m/4,298ft)

Kathmandu itinerary 4 days

will be warmly greeted by our representatives at Tribhuvan International Airport, and then be taken to your hotel. Feel free to enjoy the magic of Kathmandu city. In the evening, the guide shall arrange a briefing session and a welcome dinner for our guests. O/N at 3 Star Hotel | Meals provided: Dinner

Day 02

Kathmandu Valley tour Day

Swayambhunath Stupa: We start our Kathmandu tour with an early morning visit to the Swayambhunath temple. On the way, you can see many monkeys wandering around. People say that the two big eyes of Swayambhunath look over the entire valley. From the top, you can see the entire Kathmandu valley below your feet, it's like a bird-eye view. This beautiful stupa will bring a very calming end to the journey. You can see many people going for morning and evening walks in the Swayambhunath area.

Kathmandu Durbar Square: After the Shah dynasty combined all the fragments of Nepal into a large state, King Prithivi Narayan Shah established Kathmandu as his capital. He used to operate the entire nation from Kathmandu Durbar Square and since then Kathmandu has been the center of all economic and political events. Here, you can see the palaces and status of the kings, a few temples, and the Home to the living goddess. Nepal might be the only country that worships living goddesses.

Patan Durbar Square: This is the 2nd among three Durbar Squares around Kathmandu that we shall visit. In the beautiful and quiet town of Patan, you will visit Patan Durbar Square where you can see Krishna Mandir, Mul Chowk, and Patan Museum. O/N at 3 Star Hotel | Meals provided: Breakfast and Dinner

Also, check Chitwan Jungle Safari Tour for a more adventurous time in Nepal.

Day 03

Kathmandu Valley tour Day

Pashupatinath temple: On the morning of this Kathmandu day tour, you will visit Pashupatinath. His laces hold religious values for Hindus around the world. On the premises, you can see many pagoda-style temples, small monuments, the statue of Lord Shiva, and a beautiful garden. The entire temple has been established on the bank of the Bagmati River where you can see the bodies of dead people being incinerated as per Hindu culture. This is a very emotional moment for each one of us.

Boudhanath Stupa: After Pashupatinath, we visit the Boudhanath stupa area. The rotating wheels around the stupa are carved with Buddhist mantras that give you great calmness. Also, you can take great photos with colorful prayer flags. The melodious Buddhist music adds to the charm. After about an hour we leave the place.

Bhaktapur: This is another small Newari town we shall visit during our Kathmandu tour and lies about 25 km from Thamel. It's more beautiful and vibrant than Kathmandu. In Bhaktapur, we will visit Changu Narayan temple and Bhaktapur Durbar Square, enlisted in the World Heritage Site by UNESCO, for their amusing culture, temples, and wood, metal, and stone sculptures. You can have the local curd, Juju Dhau, while in Bhaktapur, having a great time during the Kathmandu day tour. At this point, you might wanna add the Nepal Sunrise Sunset Tour at Nagarkot. O/N at 3 Star Hotel | Meals provided: Breakfast and Dinner

Additional Information

Which is the Best Month to Visit Kathmandu?

kathmandu valley tour is perfect in every season. Winter in Kathmandu is still very warm and pleasing. The temperature in the daytime is about 10 degrees Celsius and you can roam freely. Also, you might get to celebrate the Nepalese New Year (We already live in the late 2070s). Spring (March, May, and April) is very welcoming. With festivals like Holi and Shivaratri, everything about spring is fun. Autumn and Spring are also great times for treks in Nepal as the Everest Base Camp trek.

Then we have summer when the temperature doesn't cross 30 degrees Celsius. As long as there's no rain, nothing is going to stop you from having a great time. And even if it's rainy, all you need is a raincoat- the Kathmandu tour will still be prodigious in the monsoon. Lastly, we have Autumn when Kathmandu valley appears at its best. The views of the Mountains are clear from Swayambhunath and the entire city is vibrant with festivals such as Dashain and Tihar.

So, the biggest question is "When will you be free?". Just let us know when you plan to take this Kathmandu Tour and the MyEverestTrip will do the arrangements.

Festivals of Kathmandu

The major festivals in Kathmandu are the Jatra celebrated by the Newari people. Ghode (horse) Jatra, Indra-Jatra, Gai Jatra, Bhote Jatra, and Bisket Jatra followed by a huge feast keep the city very vibrant. Similarly, people celebrate Dashain and Tihar in October and November. Pashupatinath temple is the center for the celebration of Teej and Shivaratri. Bouddhanath and Swayambhunath are especially crowded during Buddha Jayanti. Other festivals of the capital are Loshar, Holi, and Chaat, all celebrated by people of different ethnic groups.

All these festivals are celebrated on different dates as per the lunar calendar. Thus, if you plan to join the lives of people with one of these festivals on the Kathmandu tour, you must plan your trip accordingly. However, just a day of the visit is not enough to understand the culture and traditions of all people residing in the capital.
